This guy is a genius. The way he opens your mind to look at myself in a different way really helped me see where I can improve as a manager, but more importantly, be a leader.

I would recommend this man to any business and to anyone looking to improve their leadership skills.

Jose has a great way of describing how you can be a storyteller for success to ensure you are credible, but also that you can be yourself and try something different. If you do get a chance to attend a presentation, I would recommend it.

I had the pleasure of being part of an event where Jose was speaking. Jose's approach was fantastic; he provided a masterclass in developing and delivering a keynote speech, all within a relatively short time frame. His presentation style is engaging and demonstrates a passion for what he does.

If you are fortunate enough to have the opportunity to hear Jose speak or be coached by him, I highly recommend it.

Every time I hear Jose speak, I feel energized and engaged. He keeps the audience captivated, and his talks are very memorable. Jose not only entertains but also provides a lot of value to the audience in his talks, holding everyone's attention.

He inspires many to be less vanilla and more unique! I've personally learned a lot from Jose and wholeheartedly recommend booking him for your next event or as a speaking coach!

Jose has inspired me to continue tapping into my creativity as a speaker, try new things, and "BE LESS VANILLA". You'll have to hear him speak to truly know what that means.

José is a great trainer and speaker, he walks the talk and has a very pragmatic and authentic approach to his sessions. It doesn't matter if it's online or in person, in both environments he has the ability to engage and build strong rapport with the audience. I would definitely recommend him for any speaking training, coaching or even for hosting/presenting an event.
